espects he will be most missed of the three. It is certain that he was secure of an audience in quarters where the others were not much regarded. Among his brettren he was honored and beloved as were they; but far beyond the boundaries of dissent, his name was a synonyme of broad and liberal views, high culture, charity, learning, largeheartedness and sincere He was almost as tolerant and sympathetic toward the Church of England as Dr. Boyd, of St Andrew's, himself. Dissidence of dissent was a mere phrase, almost a meaningless one, to Dr. Allon. He was an admirable critic and under happier circum-stances of education and environment would probably have made for himself a name in literature. He will long be remembered as a most favorable example of men who were wider than their creeds whom this generation and the last have known.

THE DRAMA.

"THE GREY MARE" AT THE LYCEUM. It was an audience in happy humor which left the Lyceum Theatre last evening, after seeing "The Grey Mare," a light and lively comedy in three acts, adopted from the German by George R. sims and Cecil Raleigh. This piece found much favor with the house, and was the cause of almost constant merriment. The story turns on the troubles in which a certain John Maxwell involves himself by telling a bit of fiction about an imaginary ride which he said that he had taken. Maxwell indulged in this fabrication in order to teach a lesson to Kate Stanhope, the young woman whom he was to marry. Miss Stanhope did not always consider it necessary to adhere to the unadorned truth. Maxwell's attempt to convince her of the foolishness of falsehood gets him into a great many difficulties, from which he finds it a serious task to extricate himself. Much ingenuity has been shown in devising and putting together the many amusing complications. The dialogue is brisk and diverting, and the audience was well entertained.

Most of the company acted with vivacity and spirit.

Miss Effic Shannon was especially pleasing as a sus-picious but fascinating young wife. Miss Winona Shannon, a sister of Miss Effic, was on the stage only for a few minutes at the close of the last act, and practically all that she had to do was to look as pretty as she could. Miss Bessie Tyree, as Marie, the French maid, had a very slight part, but she made

He had little to say and not much to do, but he was the central and mos interesting figure when he was on the stage. The part of John Maxwell, M. D., was entirely suitable to Mr. Kelcey, and he won generous applause. Fritz Williams, who did much to keep up the gayety of "Merry Gotham" by his drollery and his agreeable of the time in which "the gray mare" was galloping over the course, but he held a liberal share of the attention and interest of the audience when he was in the field of vision. Edward J. Ratchiffe carried the part of David Maxwell easily and effectively. Charles Walcot was suffering from so bad a cold that he was sadly hampered as Richard Beswick, the solicitor. fively and hilarious scene to-night, when the first performance of the negro jubilee occurs. The enterwill be exactly what it is stated to be, a "negro jubilee." and will present the talents of negro performers in a variety of numbers, from grand-opera usic to Southern melodies, grotesque buck-dancing, jig-dancing by three female dancers, brought especially from the South for this entertainment, and four skirt dancers, who are said to be the only colored professionals in this kind of dancing in America. Levy. n cornet solos, and Levy's "great American band," will be the only features by white persons. A large au-dience is already assured. The action of the jubilee managers in giving up their Saturday night, which is undoubtedly the best show-night in New-York, to the promoters of the Actors' Fund Fair, has been great appreciated by the management of the Fair, and they have shown it by purchasing a large number of boxes.

Among the perple who are expected to be present are
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Palmer, Frank Sanger, Al Hayman,

MR. SIODDARD BEGINS A NEW COURSE.

A course of evening lectures by John L. Stoddard is anusual here and has not happened for several years. A series comprising some of the most popular discourses selected from those of this season and last was heard with the usual signs of interest and pleasure Mr. Stoddard's account of "Travels in Sunny Spain," which was given a few weeks ago as the first of the Lenten matinee course. For this evening the subject will be "Mexico, from the Capital to the Tropics." "Jerusalem and the Holy Land" will be described to-morrow afterneon and evening. The lecture on "Norway, the Land of the Midnight Sun," from last year's course, will be given on Thursday, that on "Egypt and the Nile" on Friday, and the account which was given several times a year ago of "The Passion Play of 1800 at 0810 a I Fisher, Bert Andruss, J. have the First Brigade parade in force, he would not order them out, but would leave the subject to the discretion of General Fitzgerald. General Fitzgerald declined to issue the order. He said that the notice was short, that it would interfere seriously with the work of the men now, and that it would cort the different regiments several thousand dollars to out, for bands, etc. If the Governor had ordered them out, the State would have to pay the expense Immediately after receiving this information, General Porter, Colonel Cruger, and others telegraphed the Governor, asking him to reconsider the matter, and to issue oders to the Brigede to turn out. But he again declined to do so. He was asked by letter and telegraph some time ago if he would order the Brigade to parade, but he did not answer. In the last few days efforts to get a definite roply were made by many prominent New-Yorkers, but for some unexplained reason the Governor remained silent until yesterday, when it was too late to make other arrangements, and consequently the milita of New-York state will not be represented by its crack regiments. It was said uptowa last to do honor to the memory of General Grant, and also to President Harrison, and that they felt chagrined at not being ordered out. The adjutant of the 7th Regiment, it was reported yesterday afternoon, had been preparing for a fine parade all day. Troop A, the G. A. R. men, and a few regular troops, sailors and marines, will now probably be the only ones to parade. The committee, however, has made preparations to have all other cere-

be at all favorable, careful and comprehensive ar-rangements are necessary to enable the police to handle the crowds, and to furnish seats to as many as possible. As the officers of the association are un willing to encroach upon the building fund more than they can help, the seats and staging are of the most simple condition. The Loyal Legion, which will have 300 seats reserved on the southeast corner of the feundation, has paid the cost of them. The bands, which will probably be those belonging to the 1st Regiment of Artillery, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Hamilton and Governor's Island, will be in front of these scats. Alongside of them and occupying the south end of the platform, will be the 3,000 scats resouth end of the platform, will be the 3,000 scals re-served for the Grand Army of the Republic. In front of these seats the members of the Presidential party together with other invited gnests, will be seated. On the large platform, made by covering with trader the foundations already laid, many seats are being creeted, of which 2,500 will be reserved for the mem-bers of the committees of the large of the committees. hers of the committees of trades and professions who are engaged in collecting subscriptions.

The arrangements for the Presidential party, as they were given out yesterday, are as follows. President Harrison, with all the members of the Cabinet who are able to leave Washington, and their families, will start from that city this afternoon over the Pennsylvania Railroad. They expect to reach New. York at 9:30 o'clock to-night, and all will stay at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. At noon on Wednesday. General Horace Porter with other members of the Grant Monument Association, will bring carriages for the Presidential party. Troop A, of the National Guard of the State of New-York commanded by Captain Rowe, will form line in front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel east of the car tracks at the same time. As the President comes out of the hotel, the troop will salute and form in columns of plateons, four plateons preceding the President's carriage, and three platoons marching in the rear of the carriages following the President. The line of march will be up Pffth ave. to Fifty-seventh-st.; through that street to Broadway; up Broadway and the Boulevard to seventy. second-st., and through Seventy-second-st. to Riverside Drive. Then the drive will be followed to the Tomb. The Presidential party will be received with all the due military splutes by the United States troops and the satiors and marines who will be there awaiting his

Grand Marshal Samuel Collins, of the Grand Army of the Republic, has announced the following programme for the parade of that organization. The line will form at noon on West One hundred and sixteenthst., in close column, by plateon of twelve files front, the right resting on Eighth-ave. Posts turning out in complete formation will take positions on the right of the line, in the order in which they arrive at the meeting-place, and other comrades will fail in on the right of the post formation. They will all wear full uniform, as far as possible. Three thousand seats have been provided for them on the south side of the platform, immediately behind the seats to be occupied by the Presidential party. It is expected that General Isaac S. Catlin, with his staff, will be escorted to the

The programme for the exercises which are to cele-brate the laying of the cornerstone has not been finished, who will offer the prayer not having been decided on. Bishop Andrews has been selected by the committee for this honor, but General Porter said at a late hour last night that he had not heard from him as to whether he could be present or not. The offering of prayer is the first exercise on the programme. Then General Horace Porter will make a few remarks, explaining the origin, process and object of the movement, and giving a statement of the work accomplished by the officers of the association The laying of the corner-tone by President Harrise will be next in order. The great twelve-ton greatte block will be suspended over the place it is to occupy. on the southwest angle of the foundations, and after the copper box, filled with such objects as are to be and, though they were effered to the public only a few days ago, the sale has already amounted to several thousand dollars. As there has been some misunderstanding about the nature and uses of these tickets, the committee has issued the following notice in regard to them:

To the helders of the sale and the following notice in the description of Riverside Park, fire the Presidential salue. of twenty-one guns as the cornerstone was being lowered. But, as fear was entertained that the signals will be misunderstood and the firing consequently interrupt the President's address, It was decided to fire salutes after all the ceremonles on land had been lire saintes after all the ceremonies on land and break completed. Therefore, after the President's address, Channesy M. Depew will deliver the oration of the day. Then the Miantonomoh will fire the saintes and the bands will play National airs.

TO MORROW AFTERNOON TO BE A HOLIDAY. HOW THE BILL JUST SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR

AFFECTS THE BANKS. Albany, April 25 (Special).-Governor Flower to-day signed the bill making Wednesday afternoon of this week a half-holiday in New-York, Kings and Westchester counties. The Secretary of State has been flooded with telegraphic inquiries all day from New-York bankers, asking him about the bill. It was passed at a late hour of the session, and in the conion it was not noticed. Wednesday will be General Grant's birthday, and on the afternoon of that day will be laid the cornerstone of the monument to Gen eral Grant at Riverside Park. Here is the law in eral Grant at Riverside Park. Here is the law in full:

Chapter 369. An net in relation to the 27th of April, and making it a half-holiday. Approved by the Governor April 25, 1892.

P-sed, three-iffths being present.

The people of the State of New York, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. The 27th day of April, 1822, from 12 o'clock at noon until 12 o'clock at midmight, is hereby designated a half-holiday in and for the counties of New York, Kings and Westchester, and shall, for all purposes whatsoever, in respect to the presenting for payment or acceptance, and of the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of, bills of exchange, bank checks and promissory notes, be treated and considered as the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. Provided, however, that for the purpose of protesting or otherwise holding liable any party to any bill of exchange, check or promissory note, and which shall not have been paid before 12 o'clock at noon on the said 27th day of April, a demand of acceptance or payment thereof may be made and notice of protest or dishonor thereof may be given on the next following day; and provided, further, that when any person shall receive for collection any check, bill of exchange or promissory note, due and presentable for acceptance or payment or acceptance or o'cliceting such check, bill of exchange or promissory note on that check, bill of exchange or promissory note on that check, bill of exchange or promissory note on that day.

A NEW PLAY IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, April 25 .- "Imagination," a three-act comedy by Sydney Rosenfeld, was produced at the Walnut Street Theatre this evening before an audience that filled every part of the House. The theme is illustrative of life in the upper stratum of Bohemia. Two young fellows, a nephew and his friend, consent after much assumed disinclination to guide an old uncle through the mazes of Bohemia. Many amusing situations are involved. The play was received with evi-dences of approval. Laughter was constant, and there were two curtain calls.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

NEW-YORK AND NEW ENGLAND'S DIVIDEND. Boston, April 25.—Warren & Brandeis, counsel for N. F. Goldsmith and others, at noon to-day entered in the Supreme Court for Suffolk County a bill in equity against the New-York and New England Railroad Company. The bill seeks to restrain the com-pany from paying a dividend on its preferred stock. A hearing will be held next Wednesday. The bill alleges that for twelve months ending September 30, 1891, the net profits applicable to the payment of dividends, from which dividends aggregating $210,000 were actually paid, did not exceed $229,520; in the period of three months ending comber 31, 1891, the company failed to earn any net profits, but on the contrary, the operations showed a net loss of $55,429; during the first three months of 1800 the operation of the railroad resulted in a net loss of $15,680; and during the first three onths of 1891 a net loss of $58,414.

months of 1891 a net loss of $58,414.

The bill further alleges that on March 29 the directors voted to pay a divideod of $3 50 a share on the preferred stock on May 2; that the directors at the time knew the facts alleged in the present bill, and that there would be no net earnings applicable to the payment of dividends on the preferred stock. It is also further alleged that the defendants have sole 2,000 shares of the preferred stock during the last three months illegally and contrary to law, and that unless restrained they intend to apply the proceeds of the sale of the 2,000 shares to the payment of part of the dividend.

The plaintiffs pray, first, that the respondents may answer, but not under oath, the complainants ex-pressly wairing the benefit of an answer under oath; pressly waiging the benefit of an answer under oath, second, that a writ of preliminary injunction may be issued, restraining the defendants, pending the trial and determination of this suit, from paying the dividend voted upon the preferred stock; third, that a writ of perpetual injunction may issue, restraining the defendant from paying any dividend on the preferred stock until the corporation shall have earned sufficient net profits.

EASTBOUND SHIPMENTS OF FREIGHT.

Chicago, April 25.—The statement of castbound freight shipments last week indicates the force of lake competition as against the milroads. All tild, the shipments of dead freight eastbound from Chicago by the ten roads engaged in the traffic amounted to 65, 054 tons, against 80,062 tons during the preceding week, and against 54,433 tons during the corresponding week of 1891. The Michigan Central outstrippe ing week of 1891. The Michigan Central outstripped all competitors, carrying 10,248 tons, while the Lake shore took second place on the list with 8,645 tons. Lake shipments during the week amounted to 106,600 tons, or 41,546 tons more than was carried by all the roads combined. This has revived the talk about rejucing the grain rate by the all-rail routes, but as ret the roads are not agreed as to whether a reduction of the through rate would be advisable. The proposition to reduce has met with strong opposition from those roads that have valuable rail business to pro-those roads that have valuable rail business to protect. They contend that it is better to lose their through traffic altogether than to save it by the sacrifice of their revenues on local shipments.

Notwithstanding this view of the situation, it is the general opinion that an open reduction of rates cannot be much longer postponed.

Shipments of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to the seaboard by the roads in the Central Traffic Association last week aggregated 27,547 tons, against 33,40s for the preceding week, and 21,240 for the corresponding week last year.

UNDERLYING SECURITIES ASKED FOR. The Olcott Richmond Terminal Reorganization Com-mittee met resterday and issued a special notice to the bondholders of the Richmond and Danville and the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, inviting deposits of their securities. In the statement sent out the gross carnings of the entire system for the last fiscal year are placed at $28.338.500; the operating expenses, $19,593,764; net carnings, $8,744,736; fixed charges, $0,474,837. Under this plan it is proposed to make the fixed charges $7,000,000. The plan, the

PREPARING TO IMPROVE THE ERIE. Chicago, April 25,-President John King, of the Eric road, arrived in Chicago to-day. He was met here by the first vice-president, E. B. Thomas, General Manager Tucker and Superintendent Mosler. The meeting is ger Tucker and Superintendent Moster. The meeting in this city was arranged for the purpose of consulting as to the improvements needed on this end of the line before the opening of the World's Pair. It is said to be the intention of the company to expend a large proportion of the earnings this year in betterments on the Chicago division and in new equipments.

A NEW GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT. Montreal, April 25,-Nicholas J, Power has beer amed as Mr. Edgar's successor as general passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway. Mr. Power entered the service of the Great Western Railway Company-now part of the Grand Trunk system-in 1858, an rose gradually to the place of assistant accountant, it which he was appointed in 1882. George T. Be-will be appointed assistant general passenger agen of the Grand Trunk.

the cases against the Union Pacific officials. According the cases against the Union Fractic concease. Accounts to the reports received here, indictments will be returned against four of these men. The cases were brought on complaints of the jobbers of Salina, Wichita, Arkansas City and Hutchinson. It was charged that the Union Pacific had cut the rates on shipments of general merchandise from several of the interior Kansas points. It also undersaced that the Federal Grand Jury at Topicka is also understood that the Federal Grand Jury at is investigating cases against the Santa Fe, which are brought from Wighita, Lawrence and Toreka-

FOR ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL.

FIRST PLANS OF THE NEW BUILDINGS.

THE TRUSTEES NAME THE FIVE COMPETING FIRMS OF ARCHITECTS.

The trustees of St. Luke's Hospital, at an importan meeting held last evening, decided upon the general pital site, between One-hundred-and-thirteenth and Onehundred and fourteenth sts., and Amsterdam and Morningside aves. They also decided upon the names

Morningside aves. They also declared upon the five architects who are to be invited to compete in making the designs for the new building.

George Macculioch Miller, president of the hospital, called the meeting to order and submitted a series of instructions for the architects to the consideration of the trustees. The instructions, which embody the general outlines of the new hospital, were drawn up by Heins & La Farge, the architects of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, with the aid of the committee on buildings of the hospital. The committee consists of Samuel D. Babcock, chairman; Henry A. Oakley, George A. Crocker, Hugh N. Camp, and F. W. J. Hurst, and Mr. Miller, Cornellus Vanderbilt and Gordon Norrie, ex-officio. The instructions were adopted after a short discussion.

The future hospital, in accordance with these out-lines, is to face One-hundred-and-thirteenth-st. The centre of the so-called Administration Building is to be 317 feet from Morningside ave. The buildings are to be fireproof throughout, the basements to be of stone and the upper stories of brick with stone trimmings.

In the main building of the hospital there is to be accommodation for about 600 persons, including rooms for 350 patients. In the hospital proper there will be the surgical rooms, the so-called medical rooms, the convalescent rooms, the quiet rooms and the private rooms. There will be also accommodations to The Administration Building will be one of the

The Administration Building will be one of the chief departments connected with the institution. It is to have a main entrance, a vestibule and a covered way for carriages. A separate stairway will lead to the dispensary in the basement, and another to the chapel on the second and third floors. The chapel, with galleries, is to seat 300 visitors and to be easily accessible from the various wards. The chancel is to be arranged for the Protestant Enisconal services. be arranged for the Protestant Episcopal services. In the Administration Building there will be also a waiting-room for applicants for addoctor's examining-room, room left by dead patients, clerks, assistant superintendent, pastor, cashler, superintendent, head nurse, doorkeepers' committee clerks. rooms, lavatories, basement, apothecary's room, four sultation rooms, etc. There is to be accommodation for 100 patients in the operating-room. There are also to be a kitchen, hundry, accident ward, pathological laboratory, morgue, mortnary chapet.

In each ward of the hospital there are to be twenty beds, with 1,500 cubic feet of air for each patient. Each ward is also to have a quiet room, dining-room, private room for nurses, etc.

About one-tenth of the space of the hospital is to be reserved for private patients. The wards in this part of the hospital will be provided also with every fronting on One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st. The pastor's and superintendent's home is to contain a reception-room, library, kitchen, dining-room, pantites, five sleeping-rooms, servants'-rooms bathrooms, etc.

If possible there is also to be in the hospital a solarium. A tablet will be placed on the front of the Admin istration Building, containing an inscription referring to the former site of the hospital, and to its founder, Dr. Muhlenberg. Above the tablet in a niche will be a statue of St. Luke. The five architects selected to take part in the competition for the plans are Renwick, Aspinwall & Renwick, No. 71 Broadway; Heins & La Parge, No. 7 Beckman-st; George E. Harney, No. 71 Broadway; James Brown Lord, No. 121 East Twenty-third-st., and Charles W. Clinton, No. 32 Nassau-st. Each of these architects is to receive $400. But the competition, however, is not to be confined to these men. is to be open to all who wish to enter the contest. The architects who submit plans voluntarily will eccive no money. The plans of the voluntary con-

receive no money. The plans of the voluntary contestants, however, stand the same chance of selection as those of the five men selected by the trustees. Already many applications for permission to enter the contest have been received by the trustees. The plans must be submitted to the trustees by July 1. Between this time and July 1 the grounds of the hospital will be levelled, so that the contractors can begin work as soon as the plans are chosen.

George Macculloch Milier, president of the hospital, in spenking with a Tribune reporter last evening, said that the buildings erected now are to cover only about one-half of the site recently purchased.

It is our opinion, he added, "that it is better to build the building and the land has been paid for. We do not want to get the endowment fund so low that we should obliged to abandon the lind of work which has always distinguished the hospital. We think also that memorial buildings, etc. will be built by private persons on the other etc., will be built by private persons on the other

At a Special Meeting of the Directors of the United States Hranch of the Commercial Union Assurance Company, Limited, of London, held at she office of the company in New-York, on the 25th day of April, 1892, the following minute was ordered p aced upon the record:

This Board has learned with profound regret of the death of their late friend and associate, Edward Somerville Jadray, and while we recognize that he has entered into a better and fuller existence, we cannot but feel acute sorrow at the separation from one whose intimacy with us his best personal and so long continued, and whose barring was at all times that of a convent, loyal and helpful friend and specify man, and while we have the supersonal and so long continued, and whose barring was at all times that of a convent. Loyal and helpful friend and specify man, and while we recognize that we have been at the supersonal and so long continued, and whose barring was at all times that of a convent.

so personal and so long continued, and whose bearing was tail times that of a constant, loyal and helpful friend and gentl'man.

Mr. Jaffray, joining this Board shortly after its organization, has taken part in all the measures leading to the presson position of the company, and with that rare fidelity to excey duty which was one of his notable virtues, has attended with but few exceptions its meetings, and has in addition at all times cheerfully and fully responded to every oall for service and advice. Through the long and continued homerable and prominent position which he held in the cammonthy and by the extensive knowledge which he had rained as head of one of the city's greatest mercantile nouses, his name was of great value to this company, the anostedge in every part of the country that he was so intended to be measured by words. To his personal merita its fuely and associates give constant evidence; he was a most faithful and fowing father, a devoted nod loval friend. As a citizen his interest in this companity and make a constant with the country was constantly manifested, both by concluding from his purse and its services freely and readily it all times riven.

Recolved, That we tender to his family and his personal measuraless our profound sympathy in the lots they have sustained.
